SUPREME COURT OF THE SOVEREIGN STATE OF VERSMARK
EUGENE SMITH, Plaintiff
v.
AM MARTIN, Defendant
Case No.: SC 1/2025

MOTION TO DISQUALIFY DEFENSE ATTORNEY FOR CONFLICT OF INTEREST AND REQUEST TO EXPAND TEMPORARY INJUNCTION

TO THE HONOURABLE CHIEF JUSTICE AND THE SUPREME COURT:

Plaintiff Eugene Smith respectfully submits this Motion to disqualify the defense attorney representing Am Martin, The Lord Brandywine, Sir Joshua M. Ford, MP, Esq., on the grounds of a clear conflict of interest, and to request that the Court expand the existing temporary injunction to cover all offices, positions, and appointments currently held by the Respondent, including his role as Chief Admiral of Klanift.

I. GROUNDS FOR DISQUALIFICATION

1. Conflict of Interest: The defense attorney is simultaneously the current Minister of the Interior and the Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Sovereign State of Versmark, and was the superior of the Defendant, Am Martin, in the same ministries.

2. Divided Loyalty: The attorney holds positions with oversight over personnel, communications, and operational resources directly implicated in the ongoing criminal proceedings (CFI 2 1/2025). This dual role creates an inherent conflict, as the attorney cannot represent the Defendant without divided loyalties or potential misuse of ministerial authority.

3. Ethical and Procedural Standards: Under Versmarkian law and established legal ethics, an attorney must provide unconflicted, impartial representation. Representation by an individual with direct administrative control over the Defendant and access to ministry operations constitutes a breach of these standards.

II. REQUEST TO EXPAND TEMPORARY INJUNCTION

1. Preservation of Judicial Integrity: Given the conflict, it is critical to ensure that the Respondent cannot exercise influence over ministry operations, personnel, or communications that could compromise evidence, witness testimony, or procedural fairness.

2. Comprehensive Coverage: The Plaintiff respectfully requests that the Court extend the temporary injunction issued by the Court of First Instance – First Senate (CFI 1 1/2025) to suspend the Defendant from all offices, positions, or appointments held within the government of Versmark, including but not limited to his position as Chief Admiral of Klanift.

3. Necessity for State Interests: Expanding the injunction ensures the impartiality of ongoing proceedings, protects the Plaintiff, and preserves the integrity of state administration.

III. RELIEF REQUESTED

Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Honourable Court:

1. Disqualify The Lord Brandywine, Sir Joshua M. Ford, MP, Esq., from representing Am Martin due to the outlined conflict of interest;

2. Expand the Temporary Injunction to suspend Am Martin from all current government, administrative, and military positions pending final resolution of Case No. CFI 2 1/2025;

3. Direct all relevant government bodies to enforce the injunction immediately upon issuance, with confirmation of compliance filed to the Court within seven (7) days;

4. Grant any additional relief the Court deems necessary in the interest of justice, institutional integrity, and the protection of state authority.

Respectfully submitted this 3rd day of November 2025

Eugene Smith
Plaintiff / Former Deputy Minister of the Interior
